President updates Senate on 2025 plan
K-State President Kirk Schatz updated the Student Senate on the status of the administration's K-State 2025 Visionary Plan last night. The goal of the 2025 plan is for K-State to be recognized as a top 50 public research university in 15 years. He clarified that the term "research" does not mean K-State will focus on researching a particular subject; it is merely the classification of university that K-State falls under. Full story

Volleyball faces toughest conference away match to date
As it nears the end of the first round of conference play, the volleyball team packs its bags to travel to Ames, Iowa, for one road match in between two at home. This is the first time all season the team will face a ranked conference opponent away from Manhattan, which sophomore opposite hitter Kathleen Ludwig said should not play too much of a role in the outcome of the match.
