

the Rice Thresher

2010-2011 Advertising Information

Reach Rice. The Rice Thresher, the official student newspaper of Rice University in Houston, Texas, reaches approximately 10,000 members of the Rice community every Friday during the academic year, including students, faculty, staff, visitors and alumni.

More than 3,200 undergraduates and 2,200 graduate students attend Rice each year, representing all 50 states and 80 foreign countries. About 70 percent of undergraduates live on campus and many graduate students live in the Rice Graduate Apartments, just blocks from the world-renowned Texas Medical Center, METRORail, the Village shopping area and the Museum District.

Advertising in The Rice Thresher is the most cost-effective way to reach this sought-after niche market.

The Rice Thresher has served the Rice community since 1916, with weekly issues distributed during the academic year. The Thresher features campus news, arts and entertainment reviews, coverage of Division I and intramural sports, student opinion, plus the irreverent backpage. The Thresher also publishes a calendar and occasional features. In 2010 the Thresher was rated an "All-American" by the Associated Collegiate Press, the highest ranking given, and the Thresher consistently ranks in the top ten in ACP contests. Additionally, staff members have won regional and national awards, including from the Society of Professional Journalists.
