ABOUT US

The Daily Campus is the largest daily college newspaper in the state of Connecticut and employs more than 120 students during the academic year. 8,000 copies are distributed to over 80 locations both on- and off-campus and to select locations at the Greater Hartford regional campus Monday - Friday. In 1896, the S.A.C. Lookout was created at the Storrs Agricultural College, Storrs, Conn. The College had just opened up its first female dormitory and two young newspaper pioneers, John H. Evens and John N. Fitts, started what we know today as The Daily Campus.

The Daily Campus has had continuous daily publication for over 50 years and has recently celebrated its 110th anniversary. In the 1970s, the University of Connecticut Board of Trustees granted The Connecticut Daily Campus its independence from the Associated Student Government and created the newspaper it is today.

Advertising opportunities for the 2010-2011 school year include display advertising, color advertising, premium display space, online advertising, inserts, and participation in one of our many special issues.

What started as a gift in 1880 from Charles and Augustus Storrs to establish an agricultural school for boys, has now grown into the nationally ranked University of Connecticut. The University boasts 14 colleges including: Agriculture & Natural Resources, Business, Dental Medicine, Neag Education, Engineering, Fine Arts, Graduate, Law, Liberal Arts & Sciences, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Ratcliffe Hicks, and Social Work. UConn also ranks 21 out of 58 public research universities in graduation rate for all freshmen and 22 out of 58 public research universities for minority freshmen according to U.S. News 2010 America's Best Colleges survey.

The University is also home to several NCAA Division I-A athletic team, including their top ranked men and women's basketball teams. The men's team won NCAA Division I titles in 1999 and 2004, and the women have won in 1995, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2009, and 2010. In 2004, the University of Connecticut became the first and only Division I school to win National Championships in both men's and women's basketball during the same year.
